Preserving the memory and history of the Irish Palatines for future generations.

The aims and objectives of the IRISH PALATINE ASSOCIATION are as follows:

- To encourage and develop a sense of identity among Palatine families and their descendants.
- To collect and preserve original documents, photographs and memorabilia relating to Palatine families and to act as trustees of such material for posterity.
- The establishment of a purpose built centre, housing an exhibition detailing the Irish Palatine story ranging from their German places of origin to their colonisation and settlement in Ireland and their subsequent scattering all over the English speaking world.
- To make contact and develop links with descendants of Palatines everywhere.
- To signpost and identify sites associated with the Irish Palatine Story.

To achieve these Aims and Objectives the Association:

- Maintains an exhibition illustrating the Irish Palatine Story.
- Publishes an annual Journal and occasional News Sheets.
- Corresponds with members.
- Hosts Tours and Lectures of Palatine Interest.
- Seeks to raise funds for the development of the Irish Palatine Heritage Centre.
